

and consider the qualifications of said person before appointment; provided, that in the event no citizen of the county can be procured, who is qualified under the provisions of this Article, the said judge or judges may appoint a qualified citizen from another county of this State.

Sec. 5. That Article 1467a be added to read as follows:

Article 1467a. It shall be the duty of the auditor to install in his office a school ledger and keep in this ledger an accurate account of all funds received and all funds disbursed by the common school districts of his county. He shall also install in his office a bond register showing all the school bonds issued by the common schools of his county, the rate of interest they bear, the date they were issued, the date they are to be paid, and he shall also keep an interest and sinking fund account of school bonds of each common school district of his county.

Sec. 6. That Article 1468 be added to read as follows:

Article 1468. Access to and right to examine accounts, orders of commissioners' court, all vouchers given by trustees of common school districts. He shall have continual access to and shall examine all the books, accounts, reports, vouchers and other records of any of the officers, the orders of the commissioners court relating to finances of the county and also to examine all vouchers given by the trustees of all common school districts of the county and to inquire into the correctness of the same.

Sec. 7. The fact that there is no law authorizing the appointment of county auditors in counties having a less population than forty thousand inhabitants, or having therein a city of twenty thousand population, and there being a number of other counties in this State in which the volume of business is sufficient to make such an officer a public necessity, creates an emergency and an imperative necessity that the constitutional rule requiring bills to be read on three several days in each house be suspended, and that this Act take effect and be in full force and effect from and after its passage, and it is so enacted.

Simple Resolution No. 130.

Whereas, It appears in the morning press that Germany has ruthlessly disregarded the law of nations and her duty to mankind by sinking three American ships upon their return voyage, resulting in the sacrifice of American lives, and,

Whereas, By this wanton act, Germany has committed what appears to the Senate of Texas to be an overt act of hostility towards the United States of America,

Therefore, be it resolved, that the Senate of Texas reassure the President of the United States of its sympathy and loyalty to him in this hour of the nation's crisis, and that we condemn those who, by private act or public utterance, seek to embarrass him in the maintenance of American rights and honor, and that we unqualifiedly endorse the foreign policy of the President and that we pledge anew our fealty to our country and to our beloved President; and that a copy of this resolution be transmitted by the Secretary of the Senate to the President of the United States.

(Signed)

KING.

The resolution was read and adopted.

Simple Resolution No. 131.

Be it resolved, that whereas, there is going to be more work than the Secretary of the Senate and his assistants can perform on account of the rush of business between this time and the adjournment of the Legislature; therefore be it

Resolved, That the Senate employ Mr. W. V. Howerton as an assistant to the Secretary for the remainder of the Regular Session of the Legislature at a salary of seven and 50-100 ($7.50) dollars per day.

H. B. No. 355.

A BILL
To Be Entitled

"An Act to amend Article 854, Title 22, Chapter 4, Revised Civil Statutes of 1911, as amended by Senate Bill 342, Chapter 152, page 326, of the General Laws of the State of Texas, passed by the Thirty-third Legislature at its Regular Session, so as to provide for working of the streets by male inhabitants of cities and towns containing not more than six thousand population incorporated under the General Laws, not exceeding five days for each year; and providing for the payment of money in lieu of such work; and authorizing such cities and towns to enforce such provisions by separate ordinances, including the fixing of penalties and fines for violation thereof."

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Texas:

Section 1. That from and after the passage of this Act, Article 854 of Chapter 4, Title 22, of the Revised Statutes of 1911, as amended by Senate Bill No. 342, Chapter 152, page 326, of the General Laws of the State of Texas, passed by the Thirty-third Legislature at its Regular Session, be and the same is hereby amended so that the same shall read as follows:

Article 854. Any incorporated city or town containing not more than six thousand population in this State shall have the exclusive control and power over the streets, alleys and public grounds and highways of the city, and to abate and remove encroachments or obstructions thereon; to open, alter, widen, extend, establish, regulate, grade and otherwise improve said streets; to put drains or sewers therein, and prevent incumbering thereof in any manner, and to protect same from encroachment or injury; and to cause all able-bodied male inhabitants above twenty-one years of age and not over forty-five years of age, except ministers of the Gospel, to work thereon not to exceed five days in any one year, or furnish a substitute or sum of money not to exceed one dollar for each day's work demanded; to employ such substitute and to enforce same by appropriate ordinances, including provisions for fines and penalties; and to regulate and alter the grade of premises; to require the filling up and raising of same; and such city council shall also have power to alter or vacate the alley in any block of ground in the city upon written application of the owner of the block, or if there be more than one owner of such block, then upon the written application of all owners thereof uniting in such application; such alley so vacated shall thereupon revert to and become the property of the owner of the block of which it was a part, or if more than one, then to the owners of the adjoining lots therein, each extending to the center of the alley so vacated.

Sec. 2. Whereas, There is now no general law giving cities and towns incorporated under the General Laws the right to compel the working its streets by male inhabitants of such cities and towns, or hiring substitutes to do such work, creates an imperative public necessity that the rule requiring bills to be read on three several days be suspended, and that this Act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage, and it is so enacted.

Hon. W. P. Hobby, President of the Senate.

Sir: We, your Committee on Rules, respectfully submit the accompanying "Rules of Order for the Thirty-fifth Legislature of the State of Texas," and respectfully recommend their adoption as the permanent rules of the Senate of Texas.

King, Chairman; Page, Lattimore, Hudspeth.

RULES OF ORDER
of the
THIRTY-FIFTH LEGISLATURE
of the
STATE OF TEXAS.

RULES OF THE SENATE.*Quorum.

1. Two-thirds of all the Senators elected shall constitute a quorum, but a smaller number may adjourn (or recess) from day to day, and compel the attendance of absent members. (Constitution, Art. III, Sec. 10.)

2. In case a less number shall convene, the members present may send the Sergeant-at-Arms, or any other person or persons, for any or all absent members.

Absentees.

3. No member shall absent himself from the sessions of the Senate without leave unless he be sick or unable to attend.

4. A call of the Senate may be demanded by five members, and if there be any absent the names of the absentees shall be called again. If they do not answer, the Sergeant-at-Arms or a special messenger may be sent for them, and the question pending shall be, without a motion, laid on the table until the absentees appear or the call be suspended.

Officers of the Senate.

5. The Lieutenant Governor of the State shall, by virtue of his office, be President of the Senate (Constitution, Art. IV, Sec. 16); decide all questions of order, subject to appeal by any member; have direction and control of all committee clerks and employees of the Senate and assign them to their duties. He shall have control of such parts of the Capitol as have been, or may be, set apart for the use of the Senate and its officers. He shall have the right to name a member to perform the duties of the Chair, but such substitution shall not extend beyond such time as a majority of the Senators present vote to elect another member in the place of the member so called to the Chair by the Lieutenant Governor, and a motion shall be in order at any time such substitute is presiding to elect another member to preside, and if a majority of the Senators present so vote, the member called to the Chair by the Lieutenant Governor or by the President Pro Tem. of the Senate shall vacate the Chair and the member elected by a majority shall preside until the Lieutenant Governor or President Pro Tem. shall take the gavel and preside.

6. The Senate shall, at the beginning and close of each session, and at such other times as may be necessary, elect one of its members President Pro Tempore, who shall perform the duties of Lieutenant Governor in any case of absence or disability of that officer and whenever the said office of Lieutenant Governor shall be vacant. (Constitution, Art. III, Sec. 9.)

6a. If any Senator other than the regularly elected President Pro Tem. be presiding and fails or refuses to recognize any Senator to make a motion that is in order, or to raise a point of order, that it is in order to raise or fails or refuses to entertain an appeal from his decision, or to put such question to the Senate, or fails to recognize any Senator to demand that a point of order under discussion be immediately decided, or fails to put the question, if seconded by ten Senators, "Shall the point of order be now decided?" such Senator so offending shall be deemed guilty of violating the high privileges of the Senate and the members thereof, and shall be in contempt of the Senate, and until such offending Senator shall purge himself of such contempt and be excused by the Senate, he shall not again be called to the Chair during the session. If such Senator so presiding shall refuse to recognize any Senator when addressed in proper order, or to entertain the motion, point of order, or appeal of any Senator, or to pass upon the same, or to recognize a Senator to make the demand when seconded by ten Senators that a point of order under discussion be immediately decided, then the Senator seeking recognition may arise in his seat, and without recognition, read a written demand upon the Senator presiding, provided the same is signed by a majority of the Senators present, and if the Senator presiding persists in his refusal, then any number of Senators constituting a majority of the Senators present may present such written demand to the Sergeant-at-Arms, or the Assistant Sergeant-at-Arms, and such written demand shall be a full and sufficient warrant for arrest, empowering such officer, or either of them, to arrest said Senator so presiding and eject him from the Chair, and retain him under arrest until he shall be released by order of the Senate.

Should the Sergeant-at-Arms or the Assistant Sergeant-at-Arms fail or refuse to act and carry out such demand, they shall be removed from office on a majority vote of the Senate.

When such Senator is removed as aforesaid and the Chair remains vacant, the Secretary shall call the Senate to order, and a President Pro Tempore Ad Interim shall be elected to preside until the Lieutenant Governor or a regularly elected President Pro Tem. shall appear and take the gavel.

As soon as order is restored the Chair shall cause a record of the fact of removal to be made.

7. A Secretary, Assistant Secretary, Journal Clerk, Assistant Journal Clerk, Calendar Clerk, Engrossing Clerk, Enrolling Clerk, Sergeant-at-Arms, Assistant Sergeant-at-Arms, Doorkeeper, Assistant Doorkeeper, Chaplain and such other officers as a majority vote may determine to be necessary, shall be elected at the opening of the session of the Legislature to continue in office until discharged by the Senate, who shall perform such duties as may be incumbent upon them in their respective offices, under the direction of the Senate.

10. The names of the Senators shall be called alphabetically; should a quorum not be in attendance, a majority of those present shall be authorized to send the Sergeant-at-Arms, or a special messenger, for the absentees; when there is a quorum present the Journal of the preceding day shall be read and corrected, if necessary. A special order shall be considered at a time for which it is set and considered from day to day until disposed of unless at the time so fixed there is pending business under a special order, but such business may be suspended by a majority vote of all the members present in order to consider a special order. If a special order is not reached or considered at the time fixed, it shall not lose its place as a special order, provided that any special order shall be subject to Rule 64, providing that the order of business may be postponed or changed by two-thirds vote of all members present.

Decorum and Debate.

13. When a Senator is about to speak in debate or to communicate any matter to the Senate, he shall rise in his place and address the President.

14. When two or more members rise at once, the presiding officer shall decide which one shall speak first, but from his decision an appeal without debate may be taken to the Senate by any member.

15. No member shall speak more than once in any one debate until every member desiring to do so shall have spoken; nor shall any member speak more than twice in any one debate without leave of the Senate.

16. When a member shall be called to order by the President, or by a Senator, he shall sit down and not be allowed to speak, except to the point of order, until the question of order be decided. If the decision be in his favor he shall be at liberty to proceed; if otherwise, he shall not proceed without leave of the Senate.

17. If a member be called to order for using exceptional words, they shall immediately be taken down in writing that the President may be better enabled to judge them.

18. Every question of order shall in the first instance be decided by the President, from whose decision any member may appeal to the Senate.

19. While the President is putting the question or addressing the Senate he shall not be interrupted.

20. While a member has the floor no member shall interrupt him or otherwise interrupt the business of the Senate except for the purpose of making a point of order, calling him to order, or for the purpose of moving the previous question, or for the purpose of demanding that a point of order under discussion or consideration be immediately decided, and any member shall, though another member has the floor, be recognized by the presiding officer, and be in order to call to order the member, to make a point of order, or to move the previous question, or to demand that a point of order be immediately decided.

21. When a question is under consideration by the Senate no motion shall be made except—

(10) To postpone indefinitely.

Which several motions have precedence in the order in which they are arranged. All amendments tending to perfect a bill shall have precedence of a motion to strike out the enacting clause.

21a. Pending the reading of any bill or any resolution introduced or offered by any member, the foregoing privileged motions shall be in order, and any member shall be recognized by the presiding officer and be in order to make any such motions, or to move that the first reading of such bill or resolution be, for the time, dispensed with, and that the bill or resolution lie on the table until, for the purpose of giving it a first reading, it is taken off the table by a majority vote of the Senate.

22. No debate shall be allowed on a motion to lay on the table, for the previous question, or to adjourn, or recess.

23. When any Senate bill shall be reached upon the calendar, or shall be before the Senate for consideration, it shall be the duty of the President to give the place of such bill on the calendar to any House bill which has been referred to and reported from a committee of the Senate containing the same subject, or to lay such House bill before the Senate to be considered in lieu of such Senate bill.

24. The Senate may punish any member for disorderly conduct, and with the consent of two-thirds may expel a member; but not a second time for the same offense. (Constitution, Article 3, Section 11.)

26. Any member who shall receive or offer a bribe, or who shall suffer his vote to be influenced by promise of preference or reward, shall, on conviction be expelled.

Bills.

27. No bill shall have the force of a law until it has been read on three several days in each house, and free discussion allowed thereon; but in case of imperative public necessity (which necessity shall be stated in a preamble or in the body of the bill) four-fifths of the house in which the bill may be pending may suspend this rule, the yeas and nays being taken on the question of suspension and entered upon the Journal. (Constitution, Art. 3, Sec. 32.)

28. The President shall, at each reading, announce whether the bill originated in the Senate or House of Representatives, and whether it be the first, second or third reading.

29. A bill, when introduced, shall be read and referred to a committee. The first reading of a bill, if a Senate bill, shall be the reading thereof, when first introduced; if a House bill, the reading thereof when submitted to the Senate. And all House bills, when received in the Senate shall be read and referred to a committee. No action shall be taken upon a bill, accepting, rejecting or amending the same until it has been reported upon by a committee. And it shall be the duty of each committee of the Senate when there has been referred to it or is before it for consideration a Senate bill and a House bill containing the same subject, to first consider and report upon the House bill.

30. No motion shall be necessary to pass a bill to its secnd reading. The main question on the second reading of the bill shall be, if a Senate bill, "Shall this bill be engrossed and passed to a third reading?" And if a House bill, "Shall this bill pass to a third reading?"

31. No bill shall be considered unless it has first been referred to a committee and reported thereon, and no bill shall be passed which has not been presented and referred to a committee at least three days before the final adjournment of the Legislature. (Constitution, Art. 3, Sec. 37.) And no vote shall be taken upon the passage of any bill within the last twenty-four hours of the session unless it be to correct an error therein.

31a. Whenever any bill is reported favorably by a committee of the Senate or the Senate so direct by its order, such bill shall be printed and a copy thereof shall be laid on the desk of each Senator unless otherwise ordered by the Senate.

32. No amendment shall be adopted at the third reading of a bill without the consent of two-thirds of the members present.

33. It shall be in order at the third reading of a bill to move its reference to a committee; and should such motion prevail and the same be reported back to the Senate, the said bill shall be considered as on its second reading.

34. The presiding officer of each house shall, in the presence of the house over which he presides, sign all bills and joint resolutions passed by the Legislature, after their titles have been publicly read before singing, and the fact of signing shall be entered on the Journals. (Constitution, Art. 3, Sec. 38.)

Substitute Bills.

35. When the House of Representatives shall adopt and send to the Senate a substitute for a bill that had previously passed the Senate and been sent to the House said substitute shall be acted upon by the Senate in the same manner as a bill that originated in the House of Representatives; and any amendment which is in effect a substitute shall be considered a substitute bill.

Resolutions.

36. Every resolution that requires the approval of the Governor shall be subject to the rules that govern the proceedings on bills.

37. All resolutions, except those named in the preceding rule, shall be acted on upon their introduction, or on motion, postponed or referred to an appropriate committee.

Amendments to the Constitution.

38. All amendments proposed to the Constitution shall be subject to rules that govern the proceedings on bills, except that they shall, in all cases, be read on three several days, and shall only be passed by a vote of two-thirds of the members elected to the Senate. (Constitution, Art. 17, Sec. 1.) When a proposed amendment to the Constitution may be under consideration, the votes of a majority of the members present shall be sufficient to decide an amendment thereto, or any collateral or incidental question short of the final question.

Motions.

39. All motions shall be reduced to writing and read by the Secretary, if desired by the presiding officer or any Senator present.

40. After a motion has been stated by the President, or read by the Secretary, it shall be deemed to be in possession of the Senate; but it may be withdrawn at any time, before it has been amended or decided.

41. On motion to fix a sum or state a time, the largest sum and the longest time shall have precedence.

42. Any member may have the question before the Senate divided, if it be susceptible of a division, into distinct questions; but on the motion to strike out and insert, it shall not be in order to move for a division of the question; but the rejection of a motion to strike out and insert one proposition shall not prevent a motion to strike out and insert a different proposition; nor prevent a subsequent motion simply to strike out; nor shall the rejection of the motion simply to strike out prevent a subsequent motion to strike out and insert. A motion to table shall only affect the matter to which it is directed, and a motion to table an amendment shall never have the effect of tabling the entire measure.

43. A motion to postpone or to commit having been once decided, shall not again be entertained on the same day, at the same stage of the bill or other questions before the Senate.

Petitions and Memorials.

44. Before any petition or memorial, addressed to the Senate, shall be received and read at table, a brief verbal statement of its contents may be made by the person presenting it.

Protests.

45. Any member shall have the privilege to have spread upon the Journal of the Senate his reason for any vote he may cast.

Reports.

46. All committee reports shall be in writing.

47. It shall be in order for the Committees on Engrossed and Enrolled Bills to report at any time.

48. All reports, except reports from committees on Engrossed and Enrolled Bills, shall, after being read, lie on the table one day before consideration, unless committed.

49. When a committee shall report an original bill, such bill shall be read with the report, and shall be endorsed by the Secretary as having been read the first time.

Commitment.

50. Motions in writing, reports, and all resolutions, except such as require the approval of the Governor, may be committed at the pleasure of the Senate.

51. When several motions shall be made for reference of a subject to a committee, they shall have the preference in the following order:

First: To a committee of the whole Senate.

Second: To a standing committee.

Third: To a select committee.

Reconsideration.

52. After a question shall have been decided, either in the affirmative or negative, any member voting with the prevailing side may, on the same day in which the vote was taken, or within the next succeeding day of actual session, move the reconsideration thereof.
